Dear Hiring Manager,

20Four7VA

I am excited to apply for the PHP Developer - WordPress position. As an experienced Software Engineer with a track record of successful projects, I am confident that my skills and experience perfectly align with your requirements.

In my previous roles, I have been responsible for the development of WordPress websites / application, PHP/Laravel & Python/Django Backends, Frontend development, and deployment of cloud infrastructures, and ensuring their stability, security, and scalability. I have also worked with a range of tools and technologies, including AWS, Docker, Github Action, Jenkins, Git, and Terraform.

Moreover, I have extensive experience in WordPress Themes and plugins development ensuring WordPress best practices and methodologies such as Continuous Integration (CI), Continuous Delivery (CD), and Infrastructure as Code (IAC), which have helped the organizations I have worked with to achieve faster time-to-market, improved quality, and reduced cost.

Furthermore, I have extensive experience in agile cross-functional teams able to adapt, collaborate and help the team for success and timely delivery. Other skill include scripting languages like Python, Bash, and PowerShell, which I have used to automate various tasks, including configuration management and deployment pipelines.

I am also skilled in monitoring tools such as CloudWatch, Prometheus, Grafana, and ELK stack, enabling the team transparency, to quickly identify and resolve any issues that may arise. My expertise in security and compliance also means that I ensure systems and applications are well-tested for any form of vulnerabilities, secure, and compliant with industry standards and regulations (OWASP).

Moreover, I am passionate about collaborating with cross-functional teams to deliver high-quality software products. My strong communication and servant-leadership skills allow me to effectively communicate with stakeholders and team members, aligning everyone towards a common goal.

I am excited about the opportunity to join your team and contribute to the success of your organization. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to discussing more ways my skills and experience can be of benefit to the organization.

Yours faithfully,

Olumide Oderinde
